DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1-46 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Stronach US Patent 6,722,980. A detailed reading of Stronach by an artisan of ordinary skill would teach all of the claimed invention. See the abstract and columns 4 and 5 for the feature of the quick pick column. Column 2 discloses the use of a network and the internet and that communication may be wired or wireless. Column 3 discloses the various types of racing information that can be displayed to the player. Column 6 discloses a betting card and an account manager. Columns 7 and 8 disclose more than one race viewing race events at more than one track and future race events. Columns 21 and 22 disclose that the system may be operated on any general computer including the use of a cellular telephone.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-46 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Citation of Pertinent Prior Art

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Stronach '769, Kusuda et al '514, Aronsone et al '701 are all related to a horse racing game and have within them the feature of a quick pick.
